How Do I Become a Fellow of the Oklahoma Bar Foundation?

To become a Fellow, the pledge is $1,000 payable within a ten year period at $100 each year; however, some may choose to pay the full amount or in greater increments over a shorter period of time. The OBF offers reduced payments for newer Oklahoma Bar Association members:

- First Year Lawyers: lawyers who pledge to become OBF Fellows on or before January 2 of the year immediately following their admission may pay only $25 per year for 2 years, then only $50 for 3 years, and then at least $100 each year thereafter until the $1,000 pledge is fulfilled.
- Within Three Years: lawyers admitted 3 years or less at the time of their OBF Fellow pledge may pay only $50 per year for 4 years and then at least $100 each year thereafter until the $1,000 pledge is fulfilled.

Sustaining Fellows are those who have completed the initial $1,000 pledge and continue their $100 annual contribution to help sustain grant programs.

Benefactor Fellow is the highest leadership giving level and are those who have completed the initial $1,000 pledge and pledge to pay at least $300 annually to help fund important grant programs. Benefactors lead by example.

The Oklahoma Bar Foundation Provides Grant Funding for:

- Free legal assistance to the poor and elderly;
- Safe haven for the abused;
- Protection and legal assistance to children;
- Public law-related education programs, including programs for Oklahoma school children;
- Law student scholarships for those we expect to follow our charge;
- Other activities that improve the quality of justice for all Oklahomans.
