National Conference of Bar Foundations

NCBF 1.2.3

Dear Bar Foundation Colleagues,

1. New York! New York!

Thanks to all who attended the meeting earlier this month. We were inspired by #Giving Tuesday, motivated by the board engagement discussion, and excited to share and learn from each other (Check out our Twitter feed.)

Don't wait! Update your passport now and be sure to watch for information about the upcoming February 2018 Midyear Meeting in Vancouver!

2. It's not too late - Renew today!

Continue the benefits of your NCBF membership, including access to the Members Only website area that includes the Resource Library, use of the member Listserv for instant outreach to your colleagues, discount registration for midyear and annual meetings. Please renew online or print the form from the website and send by October 31 to take advantage of all the membership benefits.

3. Grant Opportunity!

The American Bar Endowment is making Opportunity Grants available to support smaller, innovative programs and projects by 501(c)(3) entities that address issues of immediate and critical interest to the public and members of the legal profession. Examples of past grants include rule of law initiatives, access to justice initiatives, civics education on the American legal/justice system, and legal services initiatives. Congratulations to the Georgia Bar Foundation which received a grant last year to support a Senior Attorney Pro Bono Pilot Program to address the unmet legal needs of vulnerable older adults. For more information and an application, please click here. Applications must be submitted by October 31, 2017.

As my year as president comes to an end, I would like to thank you for the opportunity to lead this great organization and for all of your contributions that make NCBF great! If you haven?t had an opportunity, please read my last words here. See you in Vancouver next February!

Thanks for your continued support of NCBF!

Lorrie Albert
