National Conference of Bar Foundations

NCBF 1.2.3

Dear Bar Foundation Colleagues,

1. What's Your Best Program ...

It is not too late to share the foundation program that you are most proud of. Please send a brief description, including whether you collaborate with your bar or others to lalbert@acba.org. Not only do I want to "brag" about our bar foundations in my opening remarks in New York, but we will use this information for our Saturday morning "Share and Tell" session! Thanks to all who are participating.

2. Another Chance to Shout Out — Partnerships for Success Award

Don't forget to nominate your amazing program (maybe even the one you submitted for #1 above) for the NCBF/LexisNexis Partnerships for Success Award. Deadline is Tuesday, April 25, 2017. This members-only award recognizes impactful civic education efforts, justice initiatives, and public service community programs. LexisNexis has generously donated an unrestricted

$1,500 monetary prize for the winner. For more information and to apply, please visit the Awards Page on the NCBF website!

3. Speaking Of Not Missing Out ...

Are you a small shop and just couldn't fit the New York Annual Meeting in your budget? The NCBF is offering two financial scholarships, including a fee waiver and a travel stipend up to $500, to assist qualified members. Take advantage of this offer before June 5th and join us for a great meeting in New York. More information and an application are available on the NCBF website. It pays to be a member of NCBF!

Until next time,

Lorrie Albert, President

P.S. In case you missed it in the last newsletter, here is my spring message communicating the key role that bar foundations play in association memberships.
